SUMMARY OF THE ISSUE

This is a request for the Commission to approve appointments to the Commission's standing advisory committees.

RECOMMENDATION

First 5 California staff recommends the Commission review the membership and descriptions of the advisory committees, and approve appointments as necessary.

BACKGROUND OF KEY ISSUES

The Commission elects advisory committees consisting of two members each to provide professional expertise and assist First 5 California staff with the development of policy and program proposals for consideration by the full Commission. Committee members are elected by a majority vote of the Commission.¹ It is the Commission's usual business practice to review the committee appointments at the first meeting of each calendar year and revise them as necessary. However, when vacancies occur and/or a new Commissioner is appointed, the Commission can take action to fill those vacancies or consider new committee assignments during any regular Commission meeting.

¹ If the committees are limited to two members and purely advisory in nature, then the committee meetings are not subject to the provisions of the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act (Bagley-Keene) (Government Code, § 11121(c).) However, if a committee is delegated any authority of the full body and exercises that authority, then the meetings of its members must be publicly noticed and accessible pursuant to Bagley-Keene. (Govt. Code, § 11121(b).) Consistent with current practice, staff is not recommending that any advisory committee carry any delegated authority.

SUMMARY OF PREVIOUS COMMISSION DISCUSSION AND ACTION

It is staff's experience that the functions of the current seven advisory committees have been beneficial and effective in developing and implementing the Commission's policy, program, and business agendas. Staff recommends retaining the current standing committees: Executive, Public Education and Outreach, Legislative, Research and Evaluation, Program, Fiscal, and Strategic Planning. Attached is the list of the advisory committees with a description of the responsibilities for each. The current membership is reflected below.
