The Commission may announce a recess for lunch during the meeting, depending on the length of the discussions. The order in which agenda items are considered may be subject to change. Depending on the time available and the orderly management of proceedings, the Commission may order adjournment (recess or postponement) of any noticed meeting, to be continued to the next day, another specific date or time, or to the next business meeting, as appropriate. Any such adjournment will be noticed at the time the order of adjournment is made (Government Code §§11128.5, 11129).

Public comment is taken on each agenda item. If an individual wishes to speak, that person is asked to place his/her name on the sign-in list. Prior to making comments, the individual is asked to state his/her name for the record and identify any group or organization represented. Depending on the number of individuals wishing to address the Commission, the Executive Director may establish specific time limits on public comments and presentations. If presenters intend to provide slide decks, exhibits, or handouts to the Commissioners and would like First 5 California to distribute them to the Commissioners and to the public in attendance at the meeting, electronic copies
